Gross and Net Revenue for Last Fis- Shipping Shares Monopolize Attencal Year Were Greatest on Record.

Aggregate Showing of National Banks as of June 30 Was Very Satisfactory.

BY I. A. FLEMING.

The fiscal year ended June 30, 1916 from the standpoint of earnings was best the Baltimore and Ohio Rail road Company ever enjoyed. The annual report, which will be pre sented to the shareholders at the annual meeting in November, will show gross revenues of $111.668.680, an increase of $19,852,883 over the revenues for the preceding fiscal year. Millions of dollars were replaced in the property, in way of needed improvements, which naturally reduced the net revenue, although, despite the expenses, the net showed an increase over the 1915 net, of $4,458,957, the net being $32,348,874.

being $32,348,874.

This was accomplished after an increase in operating expenses of $15,-394,296, or $7,511,222 more than was expended during the previous year.

Every preparation was made during the fiscal year to put the equipment of the company in the best possible order, in preparation for the increasing business which the officials believe will continue, unless the threatened strike

ARRESTED FOR KNIFING HIS COUSIN TO DEATH

Italian Chef Also Accused of Having Seriously Wounded His Brother.

65% 65% On charge of having murdered his 181/2 knife fight, Alexander Enrico Dionisio 136% 136% an Italian chef, was arrested at an 1031/2 1031/2 early hour this morning. The cousing Quinto Veanno, died this morning at Emergency Hospital, where the brother Guido Dionisio, is in a serious condi tion from knife wounds. They also were chefs. 521/4 The fight occurred at 13th and D streets about 12:30 o'clock this morn-2416 2416 ing. The prisoner told the police, it is stated, that his brother had been paying more atention to his cousin than to him. He declared that all the parties to the affair had been indulging in in-2314 toxicants.

Found Lying on Street.

A telephone operator on his way 2514 2514 home from the District building found 111/2 the wounded men on the pavement where the fight occurred. They were taken to police headquarters, where 13914 13914 Detective Burlingame heard Guido Dion

9% 139½ 139½ 139½ Detective Burlingame heard Guido Dionisio's story, and took him to Emergency Hospital. Policemen Connors and Lambert of the first precinct sent Veanno to the hospital in a taxicab.

Shortly after the affair happened the detective and two policemen went to the residence of the alleged wielder of the knife. 1357 Ohio avenue, and placed him under arrest, charged with murder and assault with a dangerous weapon. The prisoner, who is twenty-seven years old and married, was removing his clothing, some of the garments being smeared with blood, and the police think he was getting ready to go to Boston to meet his wife. He had previously arranged to leave his employment early next week and visit his wife.

Admits Having Used Knife.

When placed under arrest the pris oner denied knowing anything about the fight, but after his brother had pointed to him as his assailant he changed his mind and admitted having used the knife. The police took him to the first precinct and placed him behind The dead man and his wounded cous in were both unmarried. The former resided at 1408 E street, while the one in the hospital lives at 1318 C street. Because of the condition of the wound ed man, it is stated, the police were unable to get much information from him.

Dr. William P. Carr, acting coroner, viewed the body and heard the result of the police investigation of the stabbing. He arranged to hold the inquest at the morgue this afternoon at 3
